Learning by Doing

This program is a participative experience in leadership. You have the opportunity to practice it, not just talk about it. Simple indoor/ outdoor real-life leadership challenges help you to explore your leadership in real time.

Theory and fun activities give you a deeper understanding of 'why you do what you do', and why others respond as they do. Armed with a clear picture of your current leadership effectiveness, you set a plan to extend your leadership abilities and the leadership potential in your team.

What you will achieve

- Kick start a new level of leadership effectiveness for yourself and those you influence
- Activate a culture of engagement in your organisation
- Set a process to develop the leadership that your team or organization needs
- Develop strategies to better manage conflict & "difficult relationships"

Who is it for?

- All managers eager to improve team performance
- Business owners keen to establish a culture of excellence
- Middle managers of larger organisations, seeking to extend their skills in line with their career plan
- People of influence in organisations whose role is to build long term relationships through trust

A total leadership experience

From arrival to departure you are engaged. Our outstanding Cape Liptrap venue is a private home where standard life activities like meal preparation and fun are integral parts of the learning process. They add to the value of the program beyond the 3 days.
